By FRASER EDWARDS.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD JOHN W. DAVIS TRAIN ENROUTE TO COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 26.—John W. Davis, Democratic standard bearer, came to Ohio today prepared to carry his fight for the presidency to the home state of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty in an "honesty-in-government" issue.

Those close to Davis said that in his speech today before the Ohio State Democratic convention he would seek to hammer home the "common honesty" issue, which he believes to be the paramount one of the campaign.

Following his address to the convention Davis will meet the Ohio State Fair here and talk informally. The candidate arose early today encouraged by the cordial reception given him by crowds along his route from New York. He was greeted by several hundred enthusiastic democrats at Harrisburg, Pa., last night when he alighted from his car.

"I'm glad to see there are a few democrats left in Pennsylvania," he said.

"There'll be a lot more of us than you expected on election day," one admirer shouted in reply.

"You look to me just like the next President," a woman voter told the candidate as he shook hands with her. "I wish you all the luck in the world."

"I thank you for that," said Davis, "and I hope you get your wish."

KLAN QUESTION MEETS DAVIS ON TRIP TO OHIO

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 26.—The "honesty in government" issue brought to Ohio by John W. Davis, democratic standard bearer, was blunted by the Klan question, which figuratively met him at the train. While Davis gave no indication that he would reiterate his stand against the Klan in his speech before the Ohio democratic state convention, the issue threatened to throw the conclave into an uproar similar to that at the national convention. Davis demonstrated a determination to stress "honesty in government" issue in a short speech at Newark, Ohio, this morning. "The message I am carrying to the people is honesty in government," he declared, "and believe the people are going to vote for that in November."

JIM WILEY AND FRANK GILBERT VICTIMS OF FIGHT

Frank Gilbert of Teague and Jim Wiley of Wortham were both shot and killed Monday night near eleven o'clock at the home of Worth Moore, about two and one half miles East of Wortham in Freestone County.

It is reported that Gilbert ran a "Choc" beer stand about two and one half miles north of Wortham, just across the Navarro County line and had bought about two hundred bottles of the beer from Jim Wiley and Worth Moore, for which he refused to pay. It is said that upon Gilbert's refusal to pay that Wiley and Moore went to the place and took the beer back.

Upon arrival at this place he came upon Wiley and Moore in front of the home witnesses say and drew his shot gun on them, they then ran back of the house. Gilbert is alleged to have immediately opened fire and shot Wiley in the back with the shot gun.

Worth Moore made his way to the home of his father Jim Moore which was only a short distance, and told what had happened. Jim Moore then when down to the scene of the shooting carrying a pistol in his left pocket and arrived just as Gilbert was trying to drag the body of the dying man to his automobile. TROPICAL STORM HAS CAREENED NORTHEAST TODAY

BULLETIN:

By United Press:

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The tropical hurricane that lashed the North Carolina coast has cornered northeastward, the weather bureau reported today, warning the entire coast line up to Boston of the approach of the storm.

Gales swept a path 300 miles wide up the coast from the Carolinas during the night, but no distress signals from ships at sea were received by the Naval Communication Service here.

A warning was issued of the approach of the hurricane yesterday afternoon and many coastal vessels sought shelter before it broke.

Coast guard headquarters maintained an all night watch so that its resources might be rushed immediately to any of the stricken areas along the coast. But no reports were received.

The fury of the gales broke off communication of some of the coast guard stations around Cape Hatteras where the hurricane centered. Orders were sent out early this morning on all coast guard stations on the New Jersey coast to prepare for instant action.

Four steamers were reported in the center of the gale. They include the Creole, the Hugh Lum, the El Occidente and the William T. Rockefeller, a Standard Oil tanker.

The weather bureau reported that the barometer at a coast guard station 25 miles north of Cape Hatteras dropped to 29.22 inches, the lowest it has been reported to reach.

The harbors along the coast down to Wilmington, N. C., were reported filled with ships which sought shelter from the hurricane.

Telephone and telegraph wires cut down in some counties of Virginia and North Carolina, leading officials here to believe the interruption of communications might be responsible for the lack of details from the west down below Cape Henry, Va.

A report was received that Ocracoke Island just off the coast from Beaufort, Va., was being flooded by numerous waves washed up by the gales. Telegraph and telephone communications went out soon after the report was received. The island has some 400 inhabitants.

The wind reached a velocity of 45 miles an hour at Cape Henry, Va. At some points a velocity of 60 miles an hour was reported.

At Ocean Beach resorts all along the Maryland and Virginia coast, high but rough seas and heavy winds reported with little damage.

Lord Renfrew to Visit His Ranch Neighbors in Alberta

PRINCE OF WALES' ED RANCH NEAR HIGH RIVER, ALBERTA

Lord Renfrew is probably Canada's best known gentleman-farmer because Lord Renfrew when not traveling incognito, is H. R. H., the Prince of Wales. Lord Renfrew is not only a gentleman farmer, but a real dirt farmer, as well, when he pays a visit to his "E. P. Ranch" in southern Alberta, Canada, near High River, as he expects to do in the near future when the international polo games have been played in the United States. When a prince travels incognito, he is able to avoid all ceremony and get away from the pomp and circumstance surrounding him ordinarily, and Lord Renfrew has a warm spot in his heart for the peace and quiet of High River where uniforms, addresses of welcome, freedoms of cities and guards of honor are unknown. High River! Where a prince may dig fence post holes, and be a "regular feller" in old clothes!

This will be the third visit of this popular son of royalty to his ranch covering 4,160 acres of rolling prairie and fertile hills and valleys 25 miles from High River, a station on the Canadian Pacific Railway. The prince bought the ranch, stocked it with the finest blooded horses, cattle and sheep and has already won many prizes at cattle shows, as well as doing excellent service in improving the quality of Canadian live stock. In 1923 he visited his ranch for the second time and worked like a hired man the most of the time he was there. He dearly loves a horse, even if they do part company now and then, and is intensely interested in every phase of ranch life. Now he is to make his third visit to the ranch, which is no fact, but a straight business enterprise. His cattle, sheep and horses are much in demand by Canadian breeders.

George Lane, a native of the United States who has prospered in Canada, is Lord Renfrew's nearest neighbor. Lane owns nearly 100,000 acres and is noted as a breeder of Percherons and Clydesdales. During his first visit to the ranch in 1919, Lord Renfrew rode the range during the round-up and Lane gave him a lesson in separating a cow from her calf. The royal novice failed in his first attempt, and the calf galloped away in the wrong direction.

"Young feller," shouted Lane, "don't you know that every calf gets loose like that without a brand, goes to the crown!"

"Are many calves lost to the crown, Mr. Lane?" the heir to the throne retorted with a sly wink, then went out, got between the calf and its mother and turned it over to the waiting cowboys for the regulation branding—so that it would not be lost to the crown!

CRIMINAL COURT ROOM, CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—"They must hang"

This was the reply today of State Attorney Robert E. Crowe to the dramatic plea of Attorney Clarence Darrow for the lives of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb.

Crowe put the finishing touches to his answer to Darrow and declared to the United Press he had not been moved a hair from his decision to demand the gallows for the youths who killed Robert Franks, 14.

"This murder was deliberate; it was cold-blooded; it was committed after much calculation and careful planning," he said. "Nothing but the extreme penalty fits this case and although I have been deeply impressed by Mr. Darrow's eloquent appeal for mankind in general, I hold that only one punishment fits this crime and that punishment is death."

The defense of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb was completed before Justice Cavryly. Benjamin Bachrach, personal attorney for the Leopold family brought the defense case to a close with a brief argument for the lives of the murderers of Robert Franks. State Attorney Robert Crowe is scheduled for the state closing for the prosecution, demanding the death sentence.

According to reports gathered by the chief operator of the Southwest Bell Telephone company, the rain was heavy as far south as Koss, the downpour visiting Groesbeck and Thornton, also Wortham and Coolidge. It seemed from the reports that the rain was not general but along a strip. Word from Ft. SIX PROMINENT REPUBLICANS CONSIDERED BY PARTY

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 26.—With the definite resignation of T. P. Lee, Houston republican nominee for the office of governor before them, the Republican State Republican Executive Committee gathered here today to select another nominee.

Led by R. B. Creager, National Republican Committeeman and party whip in Texas, 51 men representing all the state senatorial districts had gathered in Houston Tuesday morning. The committee will be augmented with the arrival of at least 75 prominent republicans of the state during the day. Charles A. Boynton will act as chairman in the absence of Eugene Nolte of Seguin.

In commenting on the resignation of Lee from the race Creager said: "We have nothing but the greatest respect for him. We endeavored in vain to induce him to reconsider his resignation. He is now at Colorado Springs, Colo., and will not attend this conference owing to the illness of his wife."

There are six prominently known men seeking the nomination, according to Creager who declared that the committee had not considered a woman candidate and probably would not.

Mr. J. R. Griswold of San Antonio, Republican National Committee man held a number of conferences with women members of the party during Monday. She will remain in Houston throughout the session to aid in mapping out state-wide campaign plans.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

THE GREAT WEEK IN NOVEMBER

The American Legion, the National Education Association, and the United States Bureau of Education are cooperating to bring about the observance of American Education Week by all the people so far as possible. The dates for this year are November 17 to November 23, inclusive. It is hoped that at least some part of the program will be observed in every church and schoolhouse in the land. The exercises will be held morning, afternoon or evening as each community may prefer. The published program is merely suggestive and will doubtless be changed in many ways to meet local conditions.

Constitution Day, Monday, November 17, is designated as Constitution Day, the central idea being "The Constitution—the Framework of Democracy and Happiness."

Patriotism Day, Tuesday, November 18, "The United States Flag is the living symbol of the ideals and institutions of our Republic."

School and Teacher Day, Wednesday, November 19, "The Teacher—the guiding influence of future America."

Industry Day, Thursday, November 20, "Informed intelligence is the foundation of representative government."

Physical Education Day, Friday, November 21, "Playgrounds and athletic fields mean a strong, healthy nation."

Community Day, Saturday, November 22, "Service to the Community, State, and Nation is the duty of every citizen."

For God and Country Day, Sunday, November 23, "Religion, morality and education are necessary for good government."

The tentative program and other material prepared for convenient use Education Week will be mailed free on request to Bureau of Education, Department of Interior, Washington, D. C.

COMMUNITY DAY IN THE COUNTRY

Saturday, November 22, has been designated as Community Day in the American Education Week program for 1924. It is hoped that there will be a community meeting that day or evening in every school house in America. The subjects suggested for discussion are of particular value to rural communities, the central idea being "Service to Community, State, and Nation is the duty of every citizen." Here is a suggested program:

1. Equality of opportunity in education for every American boy and girl.
2. Better rural schools.
3. Adequate public library service for every community.
4. A community's concern for education measures its interest in its own future.
5. Good roads build a community.

Slogan—Get acquainted with your neighbor.
A square deal for the country boy and girl.
Children today—citizens tomorrow.

Teachers and community leaders will add to or subtract from the above program or modify in such a way as to meet local conditions.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that Mexia has a cotton exchange which is a real asset to the community? Roy Akin is running the exchange for the benefit of the city and surrounding section. But he can not run it on the love he bears for his fellow man alone. He needs encouragement. He needs financial support in this worthy endeavor and unless he gets it, the exchange will have to close. The Cotton Exchange is needed. Surrounding cotton markets have exchanges such as Wortham and Coolidge and if Mexia business men fail to help in retaining the exchange here, it will result in hundreds of farmers carrying their cotton to other points to market. Mexia is struggling to widen her trade territory and to make more friends on the farms of Limestone and adjacent counties. It, therefore, becomes more necessary than ever at this time that the cotton exchange be adequately financed so that it may continue to run the rest of the season and serve the section as it needs to be served.

A Hawaii a considerable number of the young Japanese born in Hawaii cling to the religion of their parents, the Buddhist service is said to be undergoing distinct changes in many of the plantation villages, owing to the fact that the younger generation insists on the use of the English language instead of Japanese. Even the Buddhist song books are said to have been translated into English. Chimes have been substituted for the floor matting on which the congregation formerly squatted, and American clothes have taken the place of the flowing kimono.

Eben Low, former Supervisor of Honolulu and a prominent member of the Hawaiian Civic Club, a local organization composed only of Hawaiians, plans to invade Los Angeles and other Southern California cities next Winter with 50 Hawaiian singers, to save the Angelinos and their neighbors from Hawaiian jazz. These "missionaries of music" would show that Hawaiian melodies and Hawaiian jazz are two separate things, according to Mr. Low, who has recently returned from the coast disgusted at the brand of music he heard offered there as Hawaiian.

VACATIONISTS COMING HOME FROM OVER COUNTRY

Vacationists are returning rapidly with the approach of September and in a few days students will begin to go back to the institutions which they are to attend this coming season. More than a hundred or more students from all over Texas and several adjoining states are expected to reach here to attend Westminster College at Tehuacana, seven miles from here.

Fifty or more school teachers will also come in to get ready for the opening of the school year here.

Art Must Reinforce Nature To Make Woman Beautiful

HIGH LIGHT DRYING.

CHICAGO—Trend of modern beauty culture is toward making a woman look natural, according to Emily Lloyd, beauty expert of Chicago, who spoke before the convention of American beauty shop owners held here, at the Marquette building on Tower Court.

"A woman is not beautiful if she is not natural," Miss Lloyd said. "But no woman looks natural with a bad skin, neglected hair, and rough uncurled hands and nails. Neither is gray hair natural. It takes a little art to make a woman look her loveliest. Eyes with colorless scanty lashes fade away into obscurity, and brighten naturally and charmingly when the lashes are skillfully darkened. Bright glossy hair is a natural frame for a pretty face. Pure creams and facial massage keep the skin smooth and velvety. Powder of a texture that the skin will accept and of a shade that will blend with the natural coloring adds to the appearance of any woman. Most women look careless and ungroomed without it. Pale lips and cheeks are nothing but flying signals of ill-health. Any wise woman will eliminate them with a lip stick and carefully chosen rouge. But worse than no powder, pencil, lip stick or rouge, is the careless and obvious use of make-up. The art of make-up and the building up of a coiffure to suit the face are things every woman must learn, and she must learn them from an artist. Therefore—the beauty shop."

ALICE BRADY MAKING UP HER EYES.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS CALLED TO PRAYER

Proceeding upon the belief that God still hears and answers prayer when prayer is offered in the right spirit, the more than 27,000 white Baptist churches of the South are being challenged by the leaders in the 75 Million Campaign and the new Unified Program of Southern Baptists to observe the week of September 21-28 as a week of prayer to the end that God will so move upon the individual Baptists of the South as to cause them to do their whole duty in the completion of the 75 Million Campaign and in subscriptions to the new program for 1925.

It is the hope of the leaders in these movements that there will be special supplications to God in behalf of these programs offered in every Southern Baptist home every day that week, that a daily service of prayer shall be held in every church where at all possible, and that Wednesday, September 24, shall be given over entirely as a day of prayer and fasting for God's power upon his people.

Pastors, Sunday school superintendents, deacons, officers of the Woman's Missionary Society and other leaders in the churches are implored to co-operate in calling the membership to prayer at this time, the belief being that if the denomination will humble itself before God and consecrate itself to His work great victory in the forward programs and

RACQUET CHAMP TO BE KNOWN FOLLOWING CONTEST

By HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. Aug. 25.—All the world's greatest tennis players, without a single exception, start today on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club in the chase for the men's national championship.

Because of the international clash of the entries, the winner will be entitled to consider himself the world's champion, although there can be no official title awarded as such owing to the ruling of the International Tennis Federation.

Nearly five players from eight nations will start in the first round. There are better players from more nations than have ever been entered in a tournament before and the matches are even more international than the recent Olympic matches in Paris.

Leading the entries are three recognized champions, who have a just claim on a world's title as it formerly was understood. William T. Tilden, the greatest player in the world, Vincent Richards, the Olympic single champion, and Jean Borotra, the Wimbledon champion, will attract the most attention.

Tilden, naturally is the favorite to retain his championship. He may be pressed harder than he was in the last two tournaments but he has such a great game that he can stand a lot of pressing.

The national champion lost two of his titles last week in Boston in the doubles. He was eliminated with Andy Weiner, his faithful partner, in the early rounds of the men's doubles and he also went down with Mrs. Nellie Mahony in the finale of the mixed doubles against Miss Helen Wills and Vincent Richards.

William M. Johnston, runner-up to Tilden in 1922 and 1923 is expected to be the most formidable rival of Tilden's again this year.

Norman Brookes, one of the greatest of all players and his Australian Davis cup partner Gerald Patterson, are also likely candidates.

Some of the feature matches on the opening card are Tilden against Brand Adams, the great Spanish player who is the only one with a victory over Tilden in the last two years; Brookes against Hines Kellibaker; and Johnston against Wills in Washington; Patterson against Fred Fisher; and Patterson against Fred Fisher.

Charles Dwyer, runner-up to Johnston in 1923, is expected to be a strong contender.

Effective 1924, the Davis Cup is now owned by the International Tennis Federation.

HOME DRESSMAKING

To Wear Under Sheer Blouses

The New Long-Waisted Camisole

What is worn underneath a sheer blouse has much to do with its smart appearance. Home dressmakers are fashioning for themselves this season lovely camisoles in the smart long-waisted effect, to add to the attractiveness of their costumes.

The camisole is an important part of the wardrobe this season, because it is worn under a sheer blouse as a part of the separate skirt. Here is one of the new models designed to wear with overblouses of high-length. This type of camisole is very desirable because it prevents the division between skirt and blouse which often occurs under a thin waist. It requires one yard of material to make for blouse size 36. Into the front neck are set three square lace medallions and the upper edge of the garment is finished with flat lace.

The camisole is put together with French seams, as shown in Fig. 1. To make this style of seam, first make garment by then, right side out. The busting should be done exactly on the seam line, but the first stitching made about 1/2 of an inch outside of the seam line. Trim the edges down closely and remove the bastings and press seams. Then turn the camisole to the opposite side and encase the raw trimmed edges by busting them inside of a seam about a quarter of an inch wide. Now stitch the seam again, either on the machine or by hand.

Fig. 11 shows how to whip the flat edging along the top of the camisole. First hem the top of the camisole, with plain or hemstitching.

Fig. 1—French Seam.

Fig. 11—Overhanding Lace to Hemmed Edge.

Place the right side of the lace edging next to the right side of the hem. Whip through every mesh of the lace, being careful not to pull the thread too tightly. When finished press out smoothly and the work will look as if the lace had been woven into the material.

Camisoles made of rayon silk and heavy silk crepe do chine give very excellent service and launder well. There are very fine silk and satin mixtures that may be used for the purpose, but usually after laundering the sheer disappears and the camisole does not look as pretty as seen through a thin material.

DEFENSE DAY IS EXPLAINED

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 26.—Defense day, September 12, was devised as a test of defense plans under the principle of America to maintain only a small standing army and an auxiliary system under which the citizens themselves assume the responsibility for their own defense in case of need.

Adjutant General James F. McKinley of the Eighth corps area declared in a letter to S. W. Durham of Waxahachie.

"Through an unfortunate confusion of terms," the military authority said, "some well meaning persons seem to have gained a misunderstanding of the purposes of the defense day test."

"Defense day does not contemplate a mobilization, nor a suspension of business activities. Under the provisions of the national defense act of 1920, which is a law of the land, an endeavor is being made to insure the security and protection of our people through the maintenance of a small standing army and the establishment of a system on the principle of the assumption by the citizens themselves of responsibility for their own defense in case of need."

"Obviously, plans for any such system should be made known to the people, and obviously, any such plans need testing."

"The program for September 12 contemplates merely a single test of the plans so far prepared and provides for acquainting the people with the fundamental principles of these plans. No enlistment or obligation for military service of any kind is asked of the citizens. The plan provides for a patriotic demonstration in which all citizens are invited."

The hour for holding exercises at different places and all ceremonies are left entirely in the hands of the local civilian committees, of which mayors of town and cities have been named chairmen, the letter pointed out.

THE LONE STAR SERIES.

By HECK.

The Lone Star Series which opens at Corsicana the 27th. between the Tyler Trojans of the East Texas league and the Corsicana Oilers of our own Texas Association gives a big field for comment and speculation among the sport writers of both leagues with the writers of each league picking their respective club as a sure winner. Naturally I pick the tribe of Johnny Vann to bring home the bacon as well as the mazzuma and I do so with full knowledge of the terrible batting power of the Tyler crowd. However, baseball history in nearly every playoff series of this kind there has been one real outstanding feature of the winner and that is pitching and in this respect the Oilers have oodles the advantage of Kitchen's Trojans. According to the averages the Tyler twirling staff is just as good, or better, than the Oilers in games won and lost but that does not count in this instance. The Texas Association is strictly a pitchers league which a glance at the batting averages of the league will prove to the most skeptical and in this respect the Texas Association is far ahead of the East Texas group. Tyler is miles ahead of the Oilers in hitting but just as far behind in defensive play but to my way of thinking I don't look for the Trojans to hit their weight against Vann's splendid pitching staff. The pitching in the East Texas loop evidently must be weak from the records of games won by Jeffy Thomas, Rodriguez and Mitchell. None of the three could make the grade in the Texas Association but were big winners up there. There are just as good hitters in the Texas Association as there is in any class D loop but I doubt if there is any better pitching staff to be found in any league of this class than this circuit produced the past season. In summing up the two clubs I would rate them in this manner.

TYLER.

A fair pitching staff made so by the wise old bird Frank Kitchen behind the bat, and I would rate Kitchen the equal of Vann or Byers in catching. A fast, young aggressive infield. A brilliant and hard hitting

OUTFIELD. Tyler is much the faster on the bases.

CORSICANA.

A great class D pitching staff. Pitchers who hold the opposition to few runs and who hold the runners on the bases. Two real catchers in manager Vann and Byers, the latter a heavy hitter but Vann will probably catch a majority of the games. A fast, steady and old reliable infield composed of veterans of many campaigns who are at their best when the game is the tightest. A hard hitting and fairly fast outfield with more old heads to balance the club.

As a final summing up I consider Corsicana the best "Money Club" in any Class D league in that the old heads and hard hitters will support that splendid pitching staff in the same manner they have during the season just ended and while the series may go the full seven games I pick Corsicana to win the series in six games. Now I don't say this for you birds to lay your hard earned coin on the tribe of Vann because I would not bet a plugged nickel myself but at the same time I pick the Oilers to win hands down.

F. B. C. BEATS SHILO.

After getting off to a bad start of a five run handicap the F. B. C. came from behind and tied the score in the eighth then Shilo refused to play longer and forfeited the game. The only feature of the game was a home run by Otis Howell (Big Shorty).

OVER THERE COMING TO THEATRE MEXIA

The Syncopated Steppers are bringing an overseas Revue to the Mexia Theatre for the last half of this week beginning Thursday, Aug. 21. Over There is the original Revue as presented in France for the 81st (Wildcat) Division.

The show abounds in laughs and queer situations, being a faithful portrayal of a rookie who never got out of the rookie class. The scenes are laid in France and the life of the soldier in Gay Paree behind the lines is touched upon in side splitting situations.

Special song numbers and novel vaudeville specialties will be introduced during the action of the playlet and a horde of charming young ladies will dance the song numbers.

"Over There" promises to be one of the best attractions of the season.

E. L. Crow has returned from a month's vacation which he spent in points in South Texas and in Old Mexico. He reports having had a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Crow and their little daughter Mary Jane, returned the early part of last week from their visit which was spent at Waco, Ft. Worth, and other places.

Mr. Crow returned by the way of Austin and was there Saturday night when the election returns were coming in. He states that much excitement prevailed and Ferguson supporters were very enthusiastic.

DAVIS AFFIRMS THAT HONESTY IS CHIEF ISSUE

By FRASER EDWARDS.

(United Press Staff Correspondent) ABOARD JOHN W. DAVIS' TRAIN ENROUTE TO COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 26.—John W. Davis, Democratic standard bearer, came to Ohio today prepared to carry his fight for the presidency to the home state of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty in an "honesty-in-government" issue.

Those close to Davis said that in his speech today before the Ohio State Democratic convention he would seek to hammer home the "common honesty" issue, which he believes to be the paramount one of the campaign.

Following his address to the convention Davis will meet the Ohio State Fair here and talk informally. The candidate arose early today encouraged by the cordial reception given him by crowds along his route from New York. He was greeted by several hundred enthusiastic democrats at Harrisburg, Pa., last night when he alighted from his car.

"I'm glad to see there are a few democrats left in Pennsylvania," he said.

"There'll be a lot more of us than you expected on election day," one admirer shouted in reply.

"You look to me just like the next President," a woman voter told the candidate as he shook hands with her. "I wish you all the luck in the world."

"I thank you for that," said Davis, "and I hope you get your wish."

KLAN QUESTION MEETS DAVIS ON TRIP TO OHIO

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 26.—The "honesty in government" issue brought to Ohio by John W. Davis, democratic standard bearer, was blunted by the Klan question, which figuratively met him at the train. While Davis gave no indication that he would reiterate his stand against the Klan in his speech before the Ohio democratic state convention, the issue threatened to throw the conclave into an uproar similar to that at the national convention. Davis demonstrated a determination to stress "honesty in government" issue in a short speech at Newark, Ohio, this morning. "The message I am carrying to the people is honesty in government," he declared, "and believe the people are going to vote for that in November."

JIM WILEY AND FRANK GILBERT VICTIMS OF FIGHT

Frank Gilbert of Teague and Jim Wiley of Wortham were both shot and killed Monday night near eleven o'clock at the home of Worth Moore, about two and one half miles East of Wortham in Freestone County.

It is reported that Gilbert ran a "Choc" beer stand about two and one half miles north of Wortham, just across the Navarro County line and had bought about two hundred bottles of the beer from Jim Wiley and Worth Moore, for which he refused to pay. It is said that upon Gilbert's refusal to pay that Wiley and Moore went to the place and took the beer back.

When Gilbert found that they had gotten the beer he came to Wortham and bought an automatic pump gun at about 10:30 o'clock Monday night, and is said to have been accompanied by Dewey Gordon and Frank Tucker who drove to the home of Worth Moore which is about two and one half miles East of Wortham. Upon arrival at this place he came upon Wiley and Moore in front of the home witnesses say and drew his shot gun on them, they then ran back of the house. Worth Moore being familiar with the surroundings knew that there was a clothes line across the back yard and ducked to run under it, but Wiley not knowing hit the line and was thrown down just as Gilbert came around the corner. Gilbert is alleged to have immediately opened fire and shot Wiley in the back with the shot gun.

Worth Moore made his way to the home of his father Jim Moore which was only a short distance, and told what had happened. Jim Moore then when down to the scene of the shooting carrying a pistol in his left pocket and arrived just as Gilbert was trying to drag the body of the dying man to his automobile. Upon Moore's arrival it is said that Gilbert began to curse and threaten to kill anyone who interfered with him, and in the controversy Jim Moore drew his pistol and shot Gilbert through the heart killing him instantly.

Jim Moore, Dewey Gordon and Frank Tucker are being held for questioning in investigation of the case in Judge B. F. Wilson's court at Wortham Tuesday afternoon, but the results of the trial had not been determined at press hour.

TROPICAL STORM HAS CAREENED NORTHEAST TODAY

BULLETIN:
By United Press:
WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The tropical hurricane that lashed the North Carolina coast has cornered northeastward, the weather bureau reported today, warning the entire coast line up to Boston of the approach of the storm.

Gales swept a path 300 miles wide up the coast from the Carolinas during the night, but no distress signals from ships at sea were received by the Naval Communication Service here.

A warning was issued of the approach of the hurricane yesterday afternoon and many coastal vessels sought shelter before it broke.

Coast guard headquarters maintained an all night watch so that its resources might be rushed immediately to any of the stricken areas along the coast. But no reports were received.

The fury of the gales broke off communication of some of the coast guard stations around Cape Hatteras where the hurricane centered. Orders were sent out early this morning on all coast guard stations on the New Jersey coast to prepare for instant action.

Four steamers were reported in the center of the gale. They include the Creole, the Hugh Lue, the El Occidente and the William E. Rockefeller, a Standard Oil tanker.

The weather bureau reported that the barometer at a coast guard station 25 miles north of Cape Hatteras dropped to 29.22 inches, the lowest it has been reported in years.

The harbors along the coast down to Wilmington, N. C., were reported filled with ships which sought shelter from the hurricane.

Telephone and telephone wires cut down in some counties of Virginia and North Carolina, leading officials here to believe this interruption of communications might be responsible stricken areas. Weather bureau lines for their lack of details from the were down below Cape Henry, Va.

A report was received that Occochee Island just off the coast from Deaufort, Va., was being flooded by mountainous waves lashed up by the gales. Telegraph and telephone communications went out soon after the report was received. The island has several hundred inhabitants.

The wind reached a velocity of 48 miles an hour, at Cape Henry, Va. At some points a velocity of 60 miles an hour was reported.

At Ocean Beach resorts all along the Maryland and Virginia coasts high tides, rough seas and heavy winds reported with little damage.

WADING POOL IS NOW OPEN AT THE HUGHES PARK

The wading pool provided at Hughes park for the kiddies by the Mexia Chamber of Commerce has been completed and the children who gather at the park each day and night are now having to time of their young lives.

The pool is 65 feet long and 15 feet wide and is graduated in depth from a few inches where the tiny tots may splash about to their hearts content to a depth where aprons and unionalls must be tucked high.

The wading pool was constructed of concrete.

City engineer R. D. Morgan turned in the water Monday evening and the kiddies had a big time last night and today.

The youngsters of this community are happy when gathered at the park where so many amusements of a recreational nature await them and for a while now they will wade to their heart's content.

Fresh, clean water is being provided and the kiddies are welcome at all times of the day and evenings.

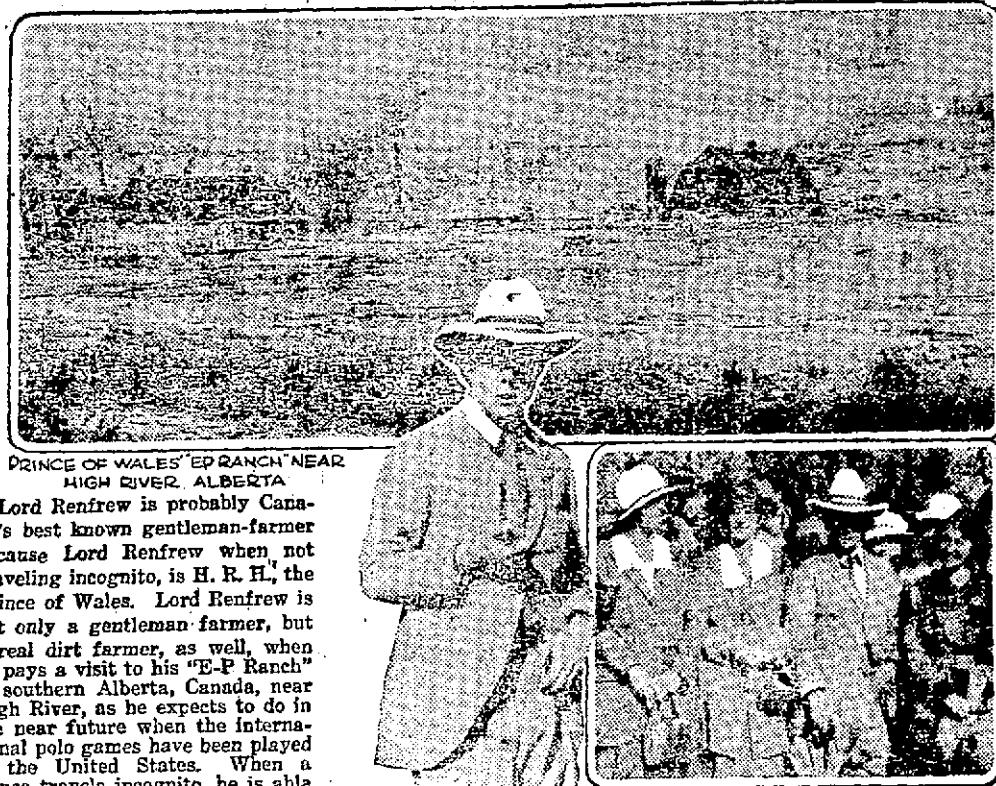

This step taken by the Chamber of Commerce, working in co-operation with the city, is one of many steps that will be taken to beautify the Hughes park and make it the most popular gathering place in this part of the State. The wading pool feature is popular in the big cities and through this arrangement by the local civic organization Mexia is keeping abreast of others.

Lord Renfrew to Visit His Ranch Neighbors In Alberta

PRINCE OF WALES' RANCH NEAR HIGH RIVER, ALBERTA

Lord Renfrew is probably Canada's best known gentleman-farmer because Lord Renfrew when not traveling incognito, is H. R. H., the Prince of Wales. Lord Renfrew is not only a gentleman-farmer, but a real dirt farmer, as well, when he pays a visit to his "E-P Ranch" in southern Alberta, Canada, near High River, as he expects to do in the near future when the international polo games have been played in the United States. When a prince travels incognito, he is able to avoid all ceremony and get away from the pomp and circumstance surrounding him ordinarily, and Lord Renfrew has a warm spot in his heart for the peace and quiet of High River where uniforms, addresses of welcome, freedoms of cities and guards of honor are unknown. High River! Where a prince may dig fence post holes, ride the range with the cowboys and be a "regular feller" in old clothes!

This will be the third visit of this popular scion of royalty to his ranch covering 4,100 acres of rolling prairie and fertile hills and valleys 25 miles from High River, a station on the Canadian Pacific Railway. The prince bought the ranch, stocked it with the finest blooded horses, cattle and sheep and has already won many prizes at cattle shows, as well as doing excellent service in improving the quality of Canadian live stock. In 1923 he visited his ranch for the second time and worked like a hired man the most of the time he was there. He dearly loves a horse, even if they do part company now and then, and is intensely interested in every phase of ranch life. Now he is to make his third visit to the restful ranch, which is no fad, but a straight business enterprise. His cattle, sheep and horses are much in demand by Canadian breeders.

George Lane, a native of the United States who has prospered in Canada, is Lord Renfrew's nearest neighbor. Lane owns nearly 100,000 acres and is noted as a breeder of Percherons and Clydesdales. During his first visit to Lane in 1919, Lord Renfrew rode the range during the round-up and Lane gave him a lesson in separating a cow from her calf. The royal novice failed in his first attempt and the calf galloped away in the wrong direction.

"Young feller," shouted Lane, "don't you know that every calf getting loose like that without a brand, goes to the crown?"

"Are many calves lost to the crown, Mr. Lane?" the heir to the throne retorted with a sly wink.

Then went out, got between the calf and its mother and turned it over to the waiting cowboys for the regulation branding—so that it would not be lost to the crown!

DEFENSE IS NOW SIX PROMINENT COMPLETE AND REPUBLICANS THE STATE CONSIDERED BEGINS BY PARTY

CRIMINAL COURT ROOM, CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—"They must hang"

This was the reply today of State Attorney Robert E. Crowe to the dramatic plea of Attorney Clarence Darrow for the lives of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb.

Crowe put the finishing touches to his answer to Darrow and declared to the United Press he had not been moved a hair from his decision to demand the gallows for the youths who killed Robert Franks, 14.

"This murder was deliberate; it was cold-blooded; it was committed after much calculation and careful planning," he said. "Nothing but the extreme penalty fits this case and although I have been deeply impressed by Mr. Darrow's eloquent appeal for mankind in general, I hold that only one punishment fits this crime and that punishment is death."

The defense of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb was completed before Justice Caverly. Benjamin Bachrach, personal attorney for the Leopold family brought the defense case to a close with a brief argument for the lives of the murderers of Robert Franks. States Attorney Robert Crowe is scheduled for the state closing for the prosecution, demanding the death sentence.

Core Newman, Sunday was the hottest day of the year with the mercury standing at 105 in the shade. Monday was also warm and Monday night was uncomfortable.

According to reports gathered by the chief operator at the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, the rain was heavy as far south as Kossie, the downpour visiting Groesbeck and Thornton, also Wortham and Coolidge. It seemed from the reports that the rain was not general but along a strip. Word from Ft. Worth was to the effect that the sun was shining there, with no rain at Corsicana, Dallas and as far North as Sherman.

The convention did little more than comply with the form as prescribed by the law as little discussion of the candidates was entered into. The eleventh congressional district comprises the six counties of Bell, Falls, Coryell, Hamilton, McLennan and Bosque, the thirteenth senatorial district is comprised of Falls, McLennan, Limestone and Milam counties while the sixth floter district is composed of Bell, Falls and McLennan counties.

The delegates who attended Saturday's G. O. P. convention include C. V. McMahan, C. Boynton, S. Clay Gilmore, H. C. Ingram, Waco; C. R. Magee, D. R. Emerson, Marlin; J. C. Gouldy, Gatesville, D. E. Wooley, Chilton; Ben F. Robay, Coleman.

Dr. Baker will oppose Tom Connally, the democratic nominee in the November election, Mr. Wooley will be pitted against Edgar Witt for state senator while Mr. Olson will fight it out with either Hannah or Gaither whichever one is declared

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 26.—With the definite resignation of T. P. Lee, Houston republican nominee for the office of governor before them, the Republican State Republican Executive Committee gathered here today to select another nominee.

Led by R. B. Creager, National Republican Committeeman and party whip in Texas, 31 men representing all the state senatorial districts had gathered in Houston Tuesday morning. The committee will be augmented with the arrival of at least 75 prominent republicans of the state during the day. Charles A. Boynton will act as chairman in the absence of Eugene Nolte of Seaguin.

In commenting on the resignation of Lee from the race Creager said: "We have nothing but the greatest respect for him. We endeavored in vain to induce him to reconsider his resignation. He is now at Colorado Springs, Colo., and will not attend this conference owing to the illness of his wife."

There are six prominently known men seeking the nomination, according to Creager who declared that the committee had not considered a woman candidate and probably would not.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

THE GREAT WEEK IN NOVEMBER

The American Legion, the National Education Association, and the United States Bureau of Education are cooperating to bring about the observance of American Education Week by all the people so far as possible. The dates for this year are November 17 to November 23, inclusive. It is hoped that at least some part of the program will be observed in every church and schoolhouse in the land. The exercises will be held morning, afternoon or evening as each community may prefer. The published program is merely suggestive and will doubtless be changed in many ways to meet local conditions.

Constitution Day, Monday, November 17, is designated as Constitution Day, the central idea being "The Constitution—the Bulwark of Democracy and Happiness."

Patriotism Day, Tuesday, November 18, "The United States Flag is the living symbol of the ideals and institutions of our Republic."

School and Teacher Day, Wednesday, November 19, "The Teacher—the guiding influence of future America."

Literacy Day, Thursday, November 20, "Informed intelligence is the foundation of representative government."

Physical Education Day, Friday, November 21, "Play-grounds and athletic fields mean a strong, healthy nation."

Community Day, Saturday, November 22, "Service to the Community, State, and Nation is the duty of every citizen."

For God and Country Day, Sunday, November 23, "Religion, morality and education are necessary for good government."

The tentative program and other material prepared for convenient use Education Week will be mailed free on request to Bureau of Education, Department of Interior, Washington, D. C.

COMMUNITY DAY IN THE COUNTRY

Saturday, November 22, has been designated as Community Day in the American Education Week program for 1924. It is hoped that there will be a community meeting that day or evening in every school house in America. The subjects suggested for discussion are of particular value to rural communities, the central idea being "Service to Community, State, and Nation is the duty of every citizen." Here is a suggested program:

1. Equality of opportunity in education for every American boy and girl.
2. Better rural schools.
3. Adequate public library service for every community.
4. A community's concern for education measures its interest in its own future.
5. Good roads build a community.

Slogans—Get acquainted with your neighbor.
A square deal for the country boy and girl.
Children today—citizens tomorrow.
Teachers and community leaders will add to or subtract from the above program or modify in such a way as to meet local conditions.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that Mexia has a cotton exchange which is a real asset to the community? Roy Akin is running the exchange for the benefit of the city and surrounding section. But he can not run it on the love he bears for his fellow man alone. He needs encouragement. He needs financial support in this worthy endeavor and unless he gets it, the exchange will have to close. The Cotton Exchange is needed. Surrounding cotton markets have exchanges such as Wortham and Coolidge and if Mexia business men fail to help in retaining the exchange here, it will result in hundreds of farmers carrying their cotton to other points to market. Mexia is struggling to widen her trade territory and to make more friends on the farms of Limestone and adjacent counties. It, therefore, becomes more necessary than ever at this time that the cotton exchange be adequately financed so that it may continue to run the rest of the season and serve the section as it needs to be served.

Although a considerable number of the young Japanese born in Hawaii cling to the religion of their parents, the Buddhist service is said to be undergoing distinct changes in many of the plantation villages, owing to the fact that the younger generation insists on the use of the English language instead of Japanese. Even the Buddhist song books are said to have been translated into English. Chairs have been substituted for the floor matting on which the congregation formerly squatted, and American clothes have taken the place of the flowing kimono.

Eben Low, former Supervisor of Honolulu and a prominent member of the Hawaiian Civic Club, a local organization composed only of Hawaiians, plans to invade Los Angeles and other Southern California cities next Winter with 50 Hawaiian singers, to save the Angelinos and their neighbors from Hawaiian jazz. These "missionaries of music" would show that Hawaiian melodies and Hawaiian jazz are two separate things, according to Mr. Low, who has recently returned from the coast disgusted at the brand of music he heard offered there as Hawaiian.

VACATIONISTS COMING HOME FROM OVER COUNTRY

Vacationists are returning rapidly with the approach of September and in a few days students will begin to go back to the institutions which they are to attend this coming session. More than a hundred or more students from all over Texas and several adjoining states are expected to reach here to attend Westminster College at Tehuacana, seven miles from here.

Fifty or more school teachers will also come in to get ready for the opening of the session here.

About 9 o'clock Monday night the fire boys responded to a call from Stevens store on East Hopkins street and on arriving in the neighborhood found only a grass fire in Hughes Park that was quickly extinguished without any damage.

This was the 19th call during August, most of which were grass or trash fires.

Art Must Reinforce Nature To Make Woman Beautiful

HIGH LIGHT DRYING

CHICAGO—Trend of modern beauty culture is toward making a woman look natural, according to Emily Lloyd, beauty expert of Chicago, who spoke before the convention of American beauty shop owners held here, at the Marquette building on Tower Court.

"A woman is not beautiful if she is not natural," Miss Lloyd said. "But no woman looks natural with a bad skin, neglected hair, and rough uncared-for hands and nails. Neither is gray hair natural. It takes a little art to make a woman look her loveliest. Eyes with colorless scanty lashes fade away into obscurity, and brighten naturally and charmingly when the lashes are skillfully darkened. Bright glossy hair is a natural frame for a pretty face. "Pure creams and facial massage keep the skin smooth and velvety. Powder of a texture that the skin will accept and of a shade that will blend with the natural coloring adds to the appearance of any woman. Most women look careless and ungroomed without it. Pale lips and cheeks are nothing but flying signals of ill-health. Any wise woman will eliminate them with a lip stick and carefully chosen rouge. "But worse than no powder, pencil, lip stick or rouge, is the careless and obvious use of make-up. The art of make-up and the building up of a coiffure to suit the face are things every woman must learn, and she must learn them from an artist. Therefore—the beauty shop."

ALICE BRADY MAKING UP HER EYES

N. P. Houx on her lot adjoining the Majestic hotel on the north, has been completed, and is now occupied by A. McReynolds, agent for the Star car, where he will carry a stock of this car.

This building is an extension of the business district and is evidence that Mexia is still growing.

W. Z. Ryan of Austin spent Sunday in Mexia with Tom Lawhon. Mr. Ryan is chief seed inspector of the Department of Agriculture of Texas and is in this part of the State inspecting some of the cotton fields. He formerly resided in Mexia and had many friends among the old timers here.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS CALLED TO PRAYER

Proceeding upon the belief that God still hears and answers prayer when prayer is offered in the right spirit, the more than 27,000 white Baptist churches of the South are being challenged by the leaders in the 75 Million Campaign and the new Unified Program of Southern Baptists to observe the week of September 21-28 as a week of prayer to the end that God will so move upon the individual Baptists of the South as to cause them to do their whole duty in the completion of the 75 Million Campaign and in subscriptions to the new program for 1935.

It is the hope of the leaders in these movements that there will be special supplications to God in behalf of these programs offered in every Southern Baptist home every day that week, that a daily service of prayer shall be held in every church where at all possible, and that Wednesday, September 24, shall be given over entirely as a day of prayer and fasting for God's power upon his people.

Pastors, Sunday school superintendents, deacons, officers of the Woman's Missionary Society and other leaders in the churches are implored to co-operate in calling the membership to prayer at this time, the belief being that if the denomination will humble itself before God and consecrate itself to His work great victory in the forward programs and

EARLY COTTON FAIR REPORT OF BUREAU STATES

The department of Agriculture weather bureau makes the following crop and weather report for Texas:

Houston: Warm and with light to moderate rains at one-half of the reporting stations, mostly in north, pastures, late corn and minor crops made fair progress where rains were good and deteriorated elsewhere. Growth of cotton was very good locally, where sufficient rain fell, but deteriorated elsewhere: condition fair to good extreme west and north-west. Elsewhere early planted cotton is fair and late planted poor.

Shedding and premature opening insect damage for the State crop continued in dry sections. Insect damage for the State is small but there is considerable weevil damage in extreme south. Picking and ginning, excellent progress.

Amarillo: Ranges and live stock are in fair to excellent condition.

In Louisiana, warm, moderate, to heavy rains broke drought in many localities, especially in the north, where conditions were serious. Good general rains are still needed in most sections. Cotton benefited by the rains, but conditions still is generally unsatisfactory. Picking and ginning made good progress to northern border.

Weevil is generally inactive. Rains came too late for much of the corn crop. Its condition is very poor and much immature corn was cut for fodder. Rice and cane made rather poor progress and is needing generally heavy rains. Pastures and truck are short. The sweet potato crop is generally poor.

Crop conditions in Oklahoma are satisfactory, according to the report: Crops made excellent progress except in droughty areas of the south, central and west. Progress and condition of cotton is very good to excellent, but poor or deteriorated and condition poor to fair in dry areas of south central and southwest. Weevil infestation is spotted increasing, but not yet serious. Early corn is made and is good to excellent. Progress and condition of late corn generally fair to good.

HOME DRESSMAKING

Cape Tuck with Lace and Tucks
This delightful frock in cranberry red crepe de chine not only introduces a new color for the coming autumn, but features tucks and lace in a clever arrangement. With it is worn a small hat of red velvet trimmed with self-color ribbon.

The same style influences that have been accentuated during the past season are to remain in vogue for early autumn, with a number of interesting changes. Semi-formal frocks for misses and women of youthful figure show a tendency to be shorter and while they are not fuller, they are trimmed with tucks and plaits in such a way that they have the appearance of increased fullness.

This design calls for four yards of cranberry red crepe de chine 36 or 40 inches wide. The gathered skirt is attached to the long-waisted blouse and trimmed with tucks of graduating size. Instead of tucks, bands may be stitched upon the skirt to look like tucks.

The round neck is finished with a deep panel collar of lace. If desired, the designs of the lace may be worked out with silk and the edges bound with narrow folds of the crepe. The short sleeves are gathered into narrow bands of the crepe, as shown in Figs. I and II. First, gather the lower edge of the sleeve. Then cut a straight strip of material twice as wide as the band is desired to be, allowing 3/4 of an inch on each edge for the seam and turning. Divide the band in half and tack one-half to the center back of the sleeve and the other half to the seam. Let the seam of the cuff and the seam of the band match. Sew the right side of the band to the right side of the sleeve.

Turn the sleeve to the reverse side (Fig. II) then turn up the cuff, turn under the edge, baste and stitch down with fine hemming stitches. This dress would be exceedingly effective developed in dark brown crepe satin with the lace collar in cream or ecru. For afternoon wear black and silver lace are suggested as a pleasing combination. In chiffon velvet and cream lace the model would express the last word in Paris chic.

(1) The immediate passage of regulations by the Ministry of Education providing for anti-alcohol instructions in all the public schools, from the primary school to the universities; (2) the granting of the right to all cities, towns and villages, to submit the question of prohibition as a local option, the voting to be participated in by both men and women; (3) the prohibition of alcoholic imports; (4) the encouragement of fruit production, including grape production, with elimination of distilling processes; (5) the abandonment by

Judge Kirby
Again Thanks Friends
I am very thankful for the handsome majority given me in last Saturday's Primary, and to those friends who aided me so loyally in rallying me such strong support, am unable to express myself, for words fail me in conveying to them a suitable message.
Not one word have I to say against those who did not vote for me, for this is still a free county, and a person is supposed to vote as he or she deems to the best interest of their county.
I also wish to thank my opponent for the manly manner in which he conducted his campaign against me.
Respectfully,
Fountain Kirby

RACQUET CHAMP TO BE KNOWN FOLLOWING CONTEST

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
(United Press Staff Correspondent).
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 25.—All the world's greatest tennis players, without a single exception, start today on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club in the chase for the men's national championship.
Because of the international clash of the entries, the winner will be entitled to consider himself the world's champion, although there can be no official title awarded as such owing to the ruling of the International Tennis Federation.
Eighty-five players from eight nations will start in the first round. There are better players from more nations than have ever been entered in a tournament before and the matches are even more international than the recent Olympic matches in Paris.
Leading the entries are three recognized champions, who have a just claim on a world's title as it formerly was understood. William T. Tilden, the greatest player in the world, Vincent Richards, the Olympic single champion, and Jean Borotra, the Wimbledon champion, will attract the most attention.
Tilden, naturally is the favorite to retain his championship. He may be pressed harder than he was in the last two tournaments but he has such a great game that he can stand a lot of pressing.
The national champion lost two of his titles last week in Boston in the doubles. He was eliminated with Andy Weiner, his youthful protégé, in the early rounds of the men's doubles and he also went down with Mrs. Molla Mallory in the finals of the mixed doubles against Miss Helen Wills and Vincent Richards.
William M. Johnston, runner-up to Tilden in 1922 and 1923 is expected to be the most formidable rival of Tilden's again this year.
Norman Brooks, one of the greatest of all players and his Australian Davis cup partner Gerald Patterson, are also likely candidates.
Some of the feature matches on the opening card are Tilden against Manuel Alonso, the good Spanish player who is the only one with a victory over Tilden in the last two years; Brooks against Hugo Keliher; Robert Kinsey against Watson Washburn; Borotra against Carl Fisher; Bryan Norton against Peck Griffin and Pat O'Hara O'Neil, the Australian against Harold Throckmorton.

HOME DRESSMAKING

By JEANNE ROLAND
(Copyright 1924 by P. S. Art Service, Inc.)

To Wear Under Sheer Blouses

The New Long-Waisted Camisole
What is worn underneath a sheer blouse has much to do with its smart appearance. Home dressmakers are fashioning for themselves this season lovely camisoles in the smart long-waisted effect to add to the daintiness of their costumes.

The camisole is an important part of the wardrobe this season, because it is worn singly and as a part of the separate shirt. Here is one of the new models designed to wear with overblouses of hip-length. This type of camisole is very desirable because it prevents the division between shirt and camisole which one often sees under a thin waist. It requires one yard of material to make for bust-size 32. Into the front and back are set three square lace medallions and the upper edge of the garment is finished with flat lace.

The camisole is put together with French seams, as shown in Fig. I. To make this style of seam, first baste garment together, right side out. The basting should be done exactly on the seam line, but the first stitching made about 1/8 of an inch outside of the seam line. Trim the edges down closely and remove the basting and press seams. Then turn the camisole to the opposite side and encase the raw trimmed edges by basting them inside of a seam about a quarter of an inch wide. Now stitch the seam again, either on the machine or by hand.

Fig. II shows how to whip the flat edging along the top of the camisole. First hem the top of the camisole, with plain or hemstitching.

Place the right side of the lace edging next to the right side of the hem. Whip through every mesh of the lace, being careful not to pull the thread too tightly. When finished press out smoothly and the work will look as if the lace had been woven into the material.

Camisoles made of radium silk and heavy silk crepe do chine give very excellent service and launder well. There are very fine silk and satin mixtures that may be used for the purpose, but usually after laundering the sheer disappears and the camisole does not look as pretty as seen through a thin material.

DEFENSE DAY IS EXPLAINED

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 26.—Defense day, September 12, was devised as a test of defense plans under the principle of America to maintain only a small standing army and an auxiliary system under which the citizens themselves assume the responsibility for their own defense in case of need. Adjutant General James P. McKinley of the Eighth corps area declared in a letter to S. W. Durham of Waxahachie.

"Through an unfortunate confusion of terms," the military authority said, "some well meaning persons seem to have gained a misunderstanding of the purposes of the defense day test.

"Defense day does not contemplate a mobilization, nor a suspension of business activities. Under the provisions of the national defense act of 1920, which is a law of the land, an endeavor is being made to insure the security and protection of our people through the maintenance of a small standing army and the establishment of a system on the principle of the assumption by the citizens themselves of responsibility for their own defense in case of need.

"Obviously, plans for any such system should be made known to the people, and obviously, any such plans need testing.

"The program for September 12 contemplates merely a single test of the plans so far prepared and provides for acquainting the people with the fundamental principles of these plans. No enlistment or obligation for military service of any kind is asked of the citizens. The plan provides for a patriotic demonstration in which all citizens are invited."

The hour for holding exercises at different places and all ceremonies are left entirely in the hands of the local civilian committees, of which mayors of town and cities have been named chairmen, the letter pointed out.

Methodist Board Of Stewards Hold September Meeting

The Board of Stewards of the Methodist church of this city held its September meeting in the lobby of the Prendergast Smith bank Monday night. Noel Hollingsworth, Chairman of the Board, presided.

The Board went over the reports of the building committee which is in charge of the improvements now being made to the basement and heating system. It was found that the work is progressing satisfactorily and in a short while the basement will be available for the purposes of the congregation.

In going over the figures, it was found that there is yet to be raised around $4,000 before a fund is available to seat and furnish the basement. It was pointed out that several members have not contributed to the improvements and these would be glad to do so, if the matter was presented to them.

Rev. W. B. Andrews, the pastor, called the Board into a Special Quarterly Conference session for the purpose of instructing the Chairman to go ahead and secure the money on notes given for the improvements, the church standing back of them.

The church has now around 750 members.

Gratification was expressed at the increasing church attendance and efforts were encouraged to bring about an even larger increase.

At the conclusion of the business session, ice cream was served, J. Sanford Smith being "the power behind the cream." He received a vote of thanks.

Those present were: Rev. W. B. Andrews, pastor, Chairman Noel Hollingsworth, R. A. Wagner, Dr. R. B. Jackson, A. W. Newberry, Jere Cason, David Murphy, Ed Measles, Garland Adair, Dr. Lennie Metcalf, J. Sanford Smith, Horace Stevens, J. L. Spikes, Sam McCord, J. P. Anderson, J. Frank Cogdell and A. H. Berry.

FOLKS DON'T THINK BLOTCHES ARE PRETTY

You can't expect people to say you are "good-looking" as long as your appearance shows you are careless about blotches, pimples, rash "breaking out" and eczema.

You may feel like you have no hope of getting rid of those things, but you should not give up because Black and White Ointment, and Soap, are proving to thousands of people every day that they can depend on them to keep their skin clear, smooth and lovely.

Black and White Ointment and Soap are nominally priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap.—(Adv.)

THE LONE STAR SERIES.

By HECK.

The Lone Star Series which opens at Corsicana the 27th. between the Tyler Trojans of the East Texas league and the Corsicana Oilers of our own Texas Association gives a big field for comment and speculation among the sport writers of both leagues with the writers of each league picking their respective club as a sure winner. Naturally I pick the tribe of Johnny Vann to bring home the bacon as well as the mazuma and I do so with full knowledge of the terrible batting power of the Tyler crowd. However, baseball history in nearly every playoff series of this kind there has been one real outstanding feature of the winner and that is pitching and in this respect the Oilers have oodles the advantage of Kitchen's Trojans. According to the averages the Tyler twirling staff is just as good, or better, than the Oilers in games won and lost but that does not count in this instance. The Texas Association is strictly a pitchers league which a glance at the batting averages of the league will prove to the most skeptical and in this respect the Texas Association is far ahead of the East Texas group. Tyler is miles ahead of the Oilers in hitting but just as far behind in defensive play but to my way of thinking I don't look for the Trojans to hit their weight against Vann's splendid pitching staff. The pitching in the East Texas loop evidently must be weak from the records of games won by Lefty Thomas, Rodriguez and Mitchell. None of the three could make the grade in the Texas Association but were big winners up there. There are just as good hitters in the Texas Association as there is in any class D loop but I doubt if there is any better pitching staff to be found in any league of this class than this circuit produced the past season. In summing up the two clubs I would rate them in this manner.

TYLER.
A fair pitching staff made so by the wise old bird Frank Kitchen behind the bat, and I would rate Kitchen the equal of Vann or Byers in catching. A fast, young aggressive infield. A brilliant and hard hitting outfield. Tyler is much the faster on the bases.

CORSICANA.
A great class D pitching staff. Pitchers who hold the opposition to a few runs, and who hold the runners on the bases. Two real catchers in manager Vann and Byers, the latter a heavy hitter but Vann will probably catch a majority of the games. A fast, steady and old reliable infield composed of veterans of many campaigns who are at their best when the game is the tightest. A hard hitting and fairly fast outfield with more old heads to balance the club.

As a final summing up I consider Corsicana the best Money Club in any Class D league in that the old heads and hard hitters will support that splendid pitching staff in the same manner they have during the season just ended and while the series may go the full seven games I pick Corsicana to win the series in six games. Now I don't say this for you birds to lay your hard earned coin on the tribe of Vann because I would not bet a plugged nickel myself but at the same time I pick the Oilers to win hands down.

F. B. C. BEATS SHILO.
After getting off to a bad start of a five run handicap the F. B. C. came from behind and tied the score in the eighth then Shilo refused to play longer and forfeited the game. The only feature of the game was a home run by Otis Howell (Big Shorty).
